2017 AIT YOUTH CampJuly 7-9, 2017 Connecting Youth Leaders and Empowering Communities

In collaboration with the U.S. Embassies in Thailand and Philippines and in partnership with National Museum of Prehistory, the American Institute in Taiwan is launching its fifth annual Youth Camp. This year's camp will bring together approximately 50 young Asian leaders, and will focus on leadership development and community empowerment. Camp activities include interactive panels led by experts from U.S. government-sponsored exchange programs, cultural exploration, and volunteer activities.

Venue: National Museum of Prehistory

Taiwan undergraduate university students of any major are welcome to apply!

Application deadline: May 31, 2017 (early submission is encouraged)

Camp expenses will be covered by AIT.

To apply, please complete the application form http://www.ait.org.tw/en/ait-youth-camp.html and send to youthcamp2017@mail.ait.org.
