Descriptions About Roundtable Topics
1. Media and Communication
In this era, new forms of media and communication are changing the world faster than ever before. Every one nowadays owns a gadget that can broadcast whatever we want to every corner of the world. From entertainment to politics, the order of the world can said to be totally rewritten. In this roundtable, delegates can discuss any topics related to the media &amp; communication issues and draw a potential action plan.
2. STEM and Education
Uneven distribution of education resources and the ill dissemination of current resources are huge issues in the current educational system. Therefore, people turn to technologies such as the Internet for further learning. In this roundtable, we tackle the issue of how we can integrate science, technology, engineering, mathematics (or STEM) and education, making difference in the current education.
3. Healthcare and Environment
It is our hope that this Roundtable, by utilizing the cross-cultural connections and collaborations produced through TASC, can help the students involved to consider the wide ranging causes and effects of such issues and the possible solutions that they can work together to initiate, in order to foster the type international cooperation that is so greatly needed to produce and maintain a sustainable, healthy planet.
4. Cultural Conflict and Identity
Visual and performance art are defined here as any art form that can be seen or performed, for example, painting, movie, dance, theatre..., etc. We are living at an age where art is not valued, but we believe that it should not be the case. At this roundtable, delegates will be exchanging ideas with their fellow RT members, learning about their respective cultures, arts, and aesthetics from a whole new perspective.
